

Continued from Page One.

remainder of the session here, with his father, who will not attend the convention.

Sir Lionel Carden, British Minister to Central America, is spending a few days in this city, en route to England.

Mrs. Ruggles, widow of Gen. Ruggles, and Miss Alma Ruggles have closed their apartment in the Dupont and are spending several weeks in New York.

Maj. Henry T. Allen, U. S. A., and Mrs. Allen will leave Washington the first of next month for Narragansett, where they will be joined by Miss Jeanette Allen, after her visit to Beach Haven, Me.

The Dominican Minister, who arrived in Washington in February, has been joined by his wife, Senora Paredo.

Medical Director John C. Boyd, U. S. N., Mrs. Boyd, and Miss Alice Boyd will close their Twenty-second Street residence shortly and leave for Europe, where they will spend the summer in travel.

Rear Admiral Charles H. Stockton, U. S. N., and Mrs. Stockton have returned from an automobile trip through Virginia and will sail for Europe on June 22.

Judge and Mrs. Daniel Thew Wright will leave here the latter part of this week for their country place at Clement Bay, Md., where they will spend the greater part of the summer. Miss Alice Wright will spend a portion of the summer with her parents in Maryland. Mrs. Durant Church, daughter of Judge Wright, has arrived in Washington from New York for a few days' visit with her parents.

Brig. Gen. Samuel Owenhine, U. S. A., Mrs. Owenhine, and Miss Sallie Owenhine spent a few days in New York before going to Nova Scotia, where they will spend the summer.

Mr. Catfagnoli, the charge d'affaires of Greece, is spending a few days at the Hotel Ritz Carlton in New York.

Gen. A. L. Mills has gone to Frederick, Md., where he has joined the Army War College class and will go with them over the Antietam battlefield. Mrs. Mills left for Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., to visit their son, Lieut. C. P. Mills, and their daughter, Mrs. E. P. Laurson, during Gen. Mills' absence.

Chief Engineer Thom Williamson, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Williamson will leave here the end of June and go to their country place, Shirley, near Haymarket, Prince William County, Va. They will spend the winter in Annapolis, Md., where they have taken a house in Prince George Street.

Mr. David Oettinger has returned to his home on Thirteenth Street from Princeton.

Mr. Augusto Ross, secretary of the Italian Embassy, sailed from New York yesterday to spend the summer in Italy.

Mrs. Grant, wife of Capt. U. S. Grant, U. S. A., is spending the summer at Cliff-ton, N. Y.

Mrs. D. A. Duncan, of Franklin, Ky., is spending a week with her son, Capt. W. A. Duncan, Medical Corps, U. S. A., at the Westmoreland. She is accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Margaret Brevard.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Collins, and Miss Elizabeth Collins, will sail from New York on July 12, to spend the summer in England and France.

Mr. Max Rich returned to Washington Wednesday from Wilson, N. C.

Miss Hortense Gundersheimer, of Baltimore, is spending the week-end in Washington.

The members of the Octagon Club and their friends are spending the day on the river. Those attending are the Misses Ernestine Rich, Muriel Rappaport, Rhoda Maunter, Belle Schiffman, Gladys Mayor, Celeste Goodman, Marguerite Kaufman, Rena Fleischman, Doris Schiffman, Natalie Mayer, Selma Kahn, Leon Stern, Rita Schiffman, Alma Baer, Bertha Halley, Hortense Gundersheimer, Annette Goldsmith, Mildred Wallenstein, Mrs. Milton Kronheim, and Mrs. Herbert Rich; Messrs. Lester Neuman, Arthur Neuman, Arthur Luchs, David Baer, Bernard Baer, Herbert Jacob, Alfred Haas, Milton Goldsmith, Milton Kronheim, Eugene Young, Leon Prestefelder, Joseph Kaufman, Maury Elmon, David Stern, Alfred Stern, Nelson Berliner, Maurice Elmon, Le Roy King, and Herbert Rich.

Mrs. Timmons, wife of Lieut. Commander John W. Timmons, U. S. N., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks, at their home in Indianapolis, Ind. She will go with them to their new summer home at Beverly, Mass.

The Admiral of the Navy and Mrs. George Dewey will close their residence here the latter part of this month, and go to Woodstock, Vt., for the summer months.

Miss Mary Enns, of Newport, R. I., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bradford, wife of Rear Admiral R. B. Bradford, at her P Street residence.

Mrs. Marsh, wife of Commander Charles Marsh, U. S. N., and daughter of the late Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, U. S. N., has taken a cottage at Newport for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Eisenman and daughter sailed for Europe, Thursday, where they will spend the summer.

Miss Mildred Wallenstein, of Richmond, Va., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Max Fischer, of Lanier Place.

Mrs. A. Schiffman has returned to her home in Greensboro, N. C., after spending a few days with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Schiffman.

Miss Della Richard, who was a guest at the Shoreham, has returned to her home in Mobile, Ala.

Maj. Gen. Adolphus W. Greely, U. S. A., and Mrs. Greely have taken a cottage at South Conway, N. H., where they will spend the summer months.

Mrs. Curtis, wife of Capt. Laurence A. Curtis, has taken a cottage at Wildwood Crest, N. J., where she will spend the summer with her father, Mr. William T. Kent.

Mrs. William Haywood, with her son and daughter, William Haywood and Miss Doris Haywood, will leave here early next month for a motor trip to the North Shore.

Col. Robert Craig, U. S. A., and Mrs. Craig and family have opened their summer home at Nantucket, Mass., for the season.

Mrs. Isador Grosner is spending some time in New York with her mother, Mrs. Isador Grosner.

Salomon. From there she will go to Ann Arbor, Mich., to attend the graduation of her son, Mr. Sylvan Grosner, and then to Atlantic City, where she will remain for the summer.

Miss Bertha Halley, of Baltimore, is spending the week-end in the city.

Rear Admiral Thomas C. Selfridge, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Selfridge have gone to Jamestown, R. I., for the summer months.

Col. Charles H. Hoyt, U. S. A., retired, and the Misses Julia and Helen Hoyt will spend the summer at the Maplewood, Pittsfield, Mass.

Mrs. Ernest Magruder will sail for Europe July 12 for a visit to her family in Edinburgh, where she will be joined later by Dr. Magruder.

Mrs. Henry W. Fitch, widow of Chief Engineer Fitch, U. S. N., and Miss Henrietta Fitch have closed their apartment in the Parkwood and gone to Willowbrook, near Auburn, N. Y., where they will visit Miss Martin. Mrs. Fitch has taken a cottage at Bay Head, N. J., for August and September.

Mr. Gerald Grosner has returned to his home on Massachusetts Avenue, from the Pennsylvania College.

Miss Miriam Franc, who has been attending the Woman's College of Baltimore, has returned to the city.

The Misses Hickey, of this city, are the guests of Mr. Alexander B. Dyer at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo.

Mr. and Mrs. Allerton Cushman and the latter's mother, Mrs. Courtland Hopkin, have gone to their summer home at Pomfret Center, Conn.

Mrs. Southerland and Miss Southerland, wife and daughter of Rear Admiral Southerland, U. S. N., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bacon at their country place at Mattapollit, Mass., are now at Magnolia, Mass., where they will spend the season.

The members of the Excelsior Club will give a tug ride next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Stern and Master Joseph Stern, of Demopolis, Ala., and Mrs. M. Stern, of Frankfurt, Germany, who spent several days in Washington the guests of Mrs. G. Oppenheimer, sailed Tuesday from New York for Europe.

Lieut. Roscoe F. Dillon, U. S. N., and Mrs. Dillon have left Annapolis, Md., for Jamestown, R. I., where they will spend the summer. Lieut. Dillon having been ordered to duty at the Naval War College at Newport.

Mrs. J. W. Chamblin and daughter Lillie, of Hamilton, Va., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Byerley in Washington.

Mr. Benito Legarde, of this city, formerly of the Philippine Islands, sailed yesterday for Europe on the George Washington.

Mrs. Walter Wellman has been joined at East Gloucester, Mass., by her daughter, Miss Rae Wellman, and they will be established in Wellman cottage, on Rocky Neck, this week. Miss Rebekah Wellman, who has spent the winter in Washington, will join her mother and sister this week. Mr. and Mrs. Wellman have spent the winter in New York. Miss Ruth Wellman is in Canton, Ohio, where she has spent the winter. Mr. Wellman will spend the week-end with his family in Gloucester until the late summer, when he will take a vacation.

Mr. Irving Strasburger, who has been spending a short time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Strasburger, in Belmont Street, has returned to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Schiffman have returned to their home in Harvard Street after a short stay in Atlantic City.

Mrs. Gunst, who spent a short time in Washington with her son, Mr. Sidney Gunst, has returned to her home in Richmond.

Surg. Alexander F. Magruder, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Magruder have closed their home in Jefferson Place, and gone to their country place at Araby, Frederick County, Md.

Mrs. Davis B. Willis, wife of Capt. Willis, U. S. M. C., has gone to Guantanamo, Cuba, where she will join her husband.

Capt. William L. Howard, U. S. N., commanding officer of the U. S. S. Idaho, and Mrs. Howard are on a motor trip for the month of June.

Miss Della Fischer and Miss Rena Fischer, of Connecticut Avenue, are spending some time in Atlantic City at the Hotel Rudolf.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Goldenberg, of Lanier Place, sailed Wednesday for Europe, where they will remain during the summer.

With the departure of Mrs. John Cropper for Europe yesterday, Washington loses another of its very popular resident hostesses, as Mrs. Cropper intends making her home with her cousins, the Marguis and Marques de St. Mass, at their estate in France.

Mrs. Cropper has dismantled her former home in M Street, and on future visits to Washington, where she proposes occasionally passing a winter, will take a furnished house.

Miss Cella McCall, of Florida, left Washington yesterday for Chicago, where she will attend the Republican convention as the guest of the Florida delegation.

Maj. B. F. Hittenshouse, U. S. A., retired, is visiting friends in Washington at 1807 Twenty-eighth Street.

Dr. and Mrs. Preston Satterthwaite, who were much entertained in this city, are late arrivals in Paris. Mr. James Macdougall, son of the Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. and Mrs. Alex B. Legare, Mr. William Draper, and Miss Draper are among the Washingtonians now in Paris.

Lieut. Col. Walter H. Chatfield, U. S. A., is a guest of friends at the Rochambeau, being on leave of absence from his station at Fort Sheridan, Ill.

Mrs. Edmund K. Webster and Miss Frances Webster, wife and daughter of the late Maj. Webster, U. S. A., sailed yesterday from New York for Europe.

The Misses Grace, Virginia and Evelyn Sherman Logan, of El Paso, Tex., are guests of friends at 632 East Capitol Street for a fortnight.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Charles H. Stockton will sail on June 22 for Europe, where they will spend the summer.

Capt. Lucian B. Moody will arrive in Washington within a few days to assume his duties here. Mr. Moody and their two children will remain in Fort Hancock, N. J., for the summer.

Mrs. Harold Levi and son have returned to this city from Baltimore, where they were the guests during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Raff, of Eutaw Place.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sanger left Friday to spend the summer near Rockville.

Miss Leona Stern has returned from Baltimore, where she spent a few days with her cousins, the Misses Minnie and Flora Gudorf.

CHEVY CHASE.

The Florence Crittenton Circle was entertained Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ryan Devereaux in Bradley Lane.

The Columbia Country Club was the scene of a pretty dance given by the young ladies of the graduating class of the Holy Cross Academy, on Tuesday evening. Miss Esther Loch was chairman. The decorations of the club were red and green. Supper was served in the main dining-room. Twenty-eight couples enjoyed the evening.

Mrs. H. H. Glasco, of Bradley Lane, will have as her guest, her cousin, Miss Mary Wilcox, who has just returned from a tour around the world. She will arrive to-morrow.

Miss Flora McGill will leave July 1 to spend the summer at Lake Champlain.

A small reception will follow the wedding ceremony of Miss Julia Eugenia Washburn and Mr. Henry Alexander Brawner, for which Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mifflin Hall have sent out invitations to be held at their residence on Northampton Street. The ceremony will take place in St. Thomas' Church. Mrs. Hall will be her sister's only attendant, and Mr. John W. Brawner will be best man for his brother.

Mrs. Victor Braunstein and little daughter, Elizabeth, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Dalton.

Mrs. T. S. Childs and Miss Helen Childs left during the week for Stony Man's Camp. Rev. Dr. Childs will join them later for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Calhoun and the Misses Calhoun, widow and daughters of Rear Admiral Edmund R. Calhoun, are delightfully situated for the summer in the Quaker-bush Place at Chevy Chase, opposite the clubhouse, which they have leased for the season. They have spent the past few summers at Atlantic City, but preferred the country near Washington this year.

CLEVELAND PARK.

Mrs. John J. Noonan will sail on June 26 for Europe, and will spend much time in Germany, where her daughter is studying music.

Mr. William Yeager, who spent some time abroad the past winter and who has been the guest recently of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Yeager, left last week for Panama.

Gen. and Mrs. A. G. Girard have as their guest their daughter, Mrs. I. C. Jenks, and granddaughter Dorothy, wife and daughter of Capt. Jenks, U. S. A.

Mrs. J. H. Bell and Miss Bell have returned from a visit to Atlantic City.

The lawn party held at the residence of Mrs. Charles E. Gailber on Wednesday evening for the benefit of Starboard Auxiliary, in aid of consumptives, was a great success.

Mrs. J. M. Burrell will entertain a house party this week. Her guests will be Miss Edith Merry, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Dr. and Mrs. Brock, of New York, who will make the trip by automobile. Mrs. Burrell will return to New York with Dr. and Mrs. Brock. Mrs. Burrell's guests arrive to-day.

Mrs. D. P. Wolhaupter and grand-daughter, Josephine, will sail the middle of this week to spend the summer in travel.

Miss Carrie London is visiting friends in Florida.

Mr. Edward Meris is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Meris. Mr. Meris is a student of the University of Virginia.

Miss Marie Yeakle is visiting friends in Frederick, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nixon, of Tulsa, Okla., are the guests of Mrs. Nixon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Meris.

Mr. Max Baker, of Princeton, is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Baker.

Miss Lloyd, of Pennsylvania, is the house guest of Mrs. John Miller.

Mr. Robert Weeks is home from the Boston School of Technology.

Mrs. F. Johnston and daughter, Mildred, of Elkton, Va., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Torbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Beach, of Ashwood Terrace, have returned from a trip to California.

Miss Theodora Henckels is visiting in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. McNell and family will leave July 1 for a visit to North Carolina, later going to their summer home near Laurel, Md.

The Rev. C. F. Bratenahl performed the wedding ceremony in the chapel of the Nativity, Mount St. Alban, on Thursday evening, June 14, for the wedding of Mr. William Hector von Bayer and Miss Margaret Agathe Alma Loriberg.

Mrs. J. M. Burrell has loaned her home and grounds for a lawn fête to be given on Thursday evening, June 28, for an outing fund of the choir of St. Alban's. Refreshments are to be served on small tables, by young women in Dutch costumes. The women assisting Mrs. Burrell will be Mrs. J. T. Baines, Mrs. W. E. Clark, Mrs. Horace Beall, Mrs. Thomas Schneider, and Mrs. Clark Middleton. In case of rain the fête will be held the following evening.

GEORGETOWN.

Miss Frances Blake has been entertaining Miss Edith Frazier and Miss Eleanor Grant, of Gainesville, Ohio, for the past two weeks. Miss Frazier and Miss Grant will leave to-morrow to visit friends in Baltimore.

Mr. D. N. Swan, of Fort Myer, announces the engagement of his daughter, Nellie Frances, to Lieut. Fred M. Green, U. S. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Burrell, of Dumbar Court, have returned from an automobile trip through Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Mrs. James L. Kibler has had as her guest Mrs. Edna, of Roanoke, Va.

Miss Mary Hyde has gone to visit friends in East Orange, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. De Venny, of Dumbar Court, have gone to New York State for the summer.

Miss Charlotte Harmon, who spends her winters in Washington with her cousin, Mrs. M. H. Brown, left Tuesday for her home at Money Creek, Va.

Mrs. W. D. Brace returned yesterday from a week's visit in Baltimore.

Rev. J. L. Kibler left Tuesday for Winchester to attend the Sunday school convention. He will visit his sister, Mrs. Markwood, before returning.

Mrs. M. J. Barron was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, at their bungalow, near Dixie, last week.

A concert given by sixty-one pieces of the Marine Band on Tuesday afternoon was much enjoyed at the Home of Incurables.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bogley left yesterday for a stay of two weeks at Atlantic City.

Miss Frances Skinner will leave the middle of this week for a visit to Chesapeake Beach.

Miss Helen Griffin entertained several of her Western High School friends at a lawn party last Thursday as a farewell to them.

Mr. Walter Bogley and the Misses Bogley, during their parents' absence, in Atlantic City, will visit their uncle at Friendship Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hight will leave Wednesday for their cottage at Grand Beach, Me.

Mrs. C. G. Smith and her family, who have been spending the winter here, will leave to-morrow for Jamestown, Long Island.

"The Sixteen" were entertained at Dendropin Lodge, near Dixie, by Mr. William McLean, last week. Among those present were Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Thyme, Mrs. C. H. and Miss Dix.

Miss Helen entertained the Misses Harris, of Comanche, Tex., Friday afternoon, at bridge. Among those invited to meet the Misses Harris were the Misses Haynes, Miss Stellwag, Miss Sheridan, Miss Clagett, and Mrs. Salter.

Miss Clara Ross left yesterday to visit friends in Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Randall have taken an apartment at Dumbar Court.

Miss Helen Beall is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Backus, at Glenclary, Va.

The Misses Traylor and Miss May Parker left Friday to spend the summer at their home in West Rock.

Miss Adams, who has been spending the winter here, has left for her home near Haymarket, Va.

Mrs. E. S. Kennedy and her daughter Mary, with Mrs. Kennedy's mother, Mr. Grady, left last Thursday for Braddock Heights, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. A. A. De Lottre sailed on June 8 from New York, to spend the summer in England with her son, Mr. Andre De Lottre. Her address until November will be in his care, 31 Cannon Street, London, England.

Miss Helen Nicholson left Thursday to spend the summer in Colorado.

Mrs. Sibby left Friday to spend the summer at Gaithersburg, Md., making the trip by automobile.

Miss Frances Cassin left yesterday for the North, where she will visit friends during the summer.

Miss Emily Mathews will visit for some time in Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mathews and their family will leave to-morrow for their summer home in Oxford, Va.

Mrs. Louis Mackall and family will leave to-morrow for their new home in Langley, Va., where they will remain until late in the fall.

Miss Mary Hyde left last week to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Dodge, at Mount Washington, Mass.

Philipsborn
THE OUTER GARMENT SHOP
608 TO 614 ELEVENTH STREET

Absolute and Final Clearance of All Tailored Suits.

We have 1,500 Tailored Suits in stock—500 too many.

Tomorrow we inaugurate the most sensational reductions on suits ever announced by this or any other house for the character of merchandise represented.

A real "bargain-harvest" awaits you because of our mistake in buying too heavily.

The majority of these suits have been received within the past few weeks—so they are the "last word" for style and exclusiveness.

You'll need a new tailored suit to take along on your vacation—so take advantage of this unparalleled opportunity now.

The unrestricted choice of every suit in the house, without reserve (linens excepted), is yours during this sale.

All the white, navy and black serges, whipcords, silks, worsteds, homespuns and mixtures without a single exception.

The new scale of prices is

$10.00 for $25.00 Suits.

$15.00 for $35.00 Suits.

$25.00 for $60.00 Suits.

Coat Department.

Reduced prices are in effect on all coats.

Coats for all occasions—motoring, steamer, street, sport and dress wear.

The season's latest models are represented—in all colors and fabrics that fashion says "correct."

Some of the bargains are listed below:

$5.00 for $8.50 Striped Blazers.

$6.75 for $8.50 Red or Blue Norfolk.

$7.50 for $10.00 Satin Throw Capes.

$10.00 for $15.00 Voile Throw Capes.

$14.75 for $22.50 Cloth Coats.

$20.00 for $30.00 Silk Coats.

Dress Section.

784 Dresses—the entire stock, without reserve, is included in this dress clearance.

Whether the need is a simple street frock or an elaborate evening gown, you will find a satisfying variety of all the new models now marked at greatly reduced prices.

Included are many dresses of linen and lingerie that have arrived within the past two weeks.

The new scale of prices is

$6.90 for $10.00 Dresses.

$10.00 for $15.00 Dresses.

$14.75 for $25.00 Dresses.

$18.00 for $30.00 Dresses.

$25.00 for $45.00 Dresses.

Heights, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. A. A. De Lottre sailed on June 8 from New York, to spend the summer in England with her son, Mr. Andre De Lottre. Her address until November will be in his care, 31 Cannon Street, London, England.

Miss Helen Nicholson left Thursday to spend the summer in Colorado.

Mrs. Sibby left Friday to spend the summer at Gaithersburg, Md., making the trip by automobile.

Miss Frances Cassin left yesterday for the North, where she will visit friends during the summer.

Miss Emily Mathews will visit for some time in Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mathews and their family will leave to-morrow for their summer home in Oxford, Va.

Mrs. Louis Mackall and family will leave to-morrow for their new home in Langley, Va., where they will remain until late in the fall.

Miss Mary Hyde left last week to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Dodge, at Mount Washington, Mass.

with flags and Japanese lanterns, which gave a fairland appearance to the home and grounds. Rev. Morgan Chambers and